O.C. Community Foundation's Branson named nonprofit 'CFO of the Year'

OCT. 1, 2021 4:52 PM PT

The Orange County Business Journal recently named Tracy Branson, chief financial officer of the Orange County Community Foundation for the past 30 years, as 'CFO of the Year' in the nonprofit category, an award that recognizes those who support excellence in financial reporting and organizational ethics.

Since 1991, Branson has helped OCCF emerge as one of the largest and fastest growing community foundations among a nationwide network of 780.

She has helped the foundation grant more than $200 million in the past two years and has had a hand in awarding a cumulative $830 million to nonprofits in Orange County and around the world.
