ORANGE COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

A sold-out group of philanthropists and business and community leaders gathered at Hotel Irvine to hear OCCF President Shelley Hoss share that the foundation's assets have grown to $302 million during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017—more than doubling from $144 million in 2012. Prominent community and business leaders shared their reasons for investing in philanthropy, including Buchanan Street Partners CEO Robert Brunswick, Donnie Crevier of Crevier BMW and Crevier Classic Cars, and Ginny Ueberroth and her daughter Vicki Booth, chairman and president of the Peter and Ginny Ueberroth Family Foundation, respectively.
