ORANGE COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION APPOINTS PAUL WESTHEAD TO BOARD OF GOVERNORS

CEO of Rimrock Brings Strategic Development and Business Management Expertise to the Foundation

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (June 27, 2019) – The Orange County Community Foundation (OCCF) recently appointed Paul C. Westhead, Managing Director and CEO of Rimrock Capital Management, LLC to its Board of Governors. Westhead has a wealth of experience in executive management, strategic development, marketing and investor relations.

“We are thrilled to welcome Paul Westhead to our Board of Governors,” said Shelley Hoss, president, OCCF. “Paul has already proven an invaluable member of our Investment Committee, working to grow the charitable assets entrusted to our care. His management expertise and strategic insight will only strengthen our ability to engage donors, fuel the progress of local nonprofits and pioneer solutions to some of our county’s greatest challenges.”

Irvine-based Rimrock Capital Management, LLC is a SEC registered investment advisor that focuses on fixed income strategies. The firm manages over $4 billion, including its flagship product, the Rimrock High Income PLUS Fund.

Westhead joined Rimrock in 2004. Previously, he served as a senior vice president responsible for marketing and client relations at Oaktree Capital Management and a senior vice president at Pacific Investment Management Company (PIMCO), where he worked with several of his current Rimrock partners and was also involved in client relations and product management. Westhead started his career in the financial services industry as a broker on the floor of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange working for Credit Agricole.

Westhead is an active member of the community. He has been a member of the Investment Committee at OCCF since 2015, and currently serves as the President of the Board of Trustees at St. Margaret’s Episcopal School. Previously, he has served on the Boards of St. Thomas the Apostle School in Los Angeles and Chadwick School in Palos Verdes, California.

Westhead received his BA from Fordham University and his MBA in finance and accounting from the J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University. He resides in San Juan Capistrano with his wife, Kia, and children.
