O.C. Community Foundation raises nearly $118,000

The Orange County Community Foundation's "Love Is" donation drive Feb. 12 raised $117,918 from 421 donors.

The Newport Beach-based foundation will distribute the money to area nonprofits.

"Thanks to the dedicated work of local nonprofits and our compassionate community, teens throughout Orange County will be more empowered to foster respectful, healthy relationships," Shelley Hoss, the foundation's president and chief executive, said in a statement.
